Half-century after his death, founding bishop remembered fondly as 'the guiding light'

By Kevin Cullen
12/5/2007
The Catholic Moment (www.thecatholicmoment.org)

LAFAYETTE, Ind. (The Catholic Moment) - Fifty years ago, on Nov. 20, 1957, hundreds of bishops, priests, religious and laypeople squeezed into the Cathedral of St. Mary of the Immaculate Conception for the funeral Mass for the Most Rev. John George Bennett, first bishop of our Local Church.

He had been bishop for 12 years. He left a lasting imprint on the fledgling Diocese of Lafayette-in-Indiana, and on the hearts of those who knew him.

Bishop Bennett was an unassuming farm boy from Dunnington, a visionary administrator and a "priest's priest." It was said that he knew every pastor, assistant pastor and monsignor by baptismal name and nickname.

Warm storyteller

"He was very fatherly — a character, really — and the priests all loved him," said Father James R. Goodrum, recently retired pastor of Our Lady of the Lakes Church, Monticello. "He was so open with you, a warm person. He could raise hell with you, then pat you on the back."

Father Goodrum was still a student at Saint Meinrad Archabbey and Seminary in southern Indiana when he got to know Bishop Bennett, a 1914 Saint Meinrad graduate.

"I remember he came to Saint Meinrad one time, and he was sitting there on the seminary steps, smoking a cigar," Father Goodrum said. "We all gathered around him; he loved to tell stories."

The bishop's feelings were hurt whenever a priest came to Lafayette and didn't stop by his office to chat. If someone sent him a nasty letter about a priest, "he would mail it to you so you could load your guns," Father Goodrum said.

Bishop Bennett was born on Jan. 20, 1891, the son of a Benton County farmer and cattleman. He attended St. Mary Church, Dunnington, and its parish school, then graduated from Boswell High School and Saint Joseph's College, Rensselaer. He enrolled at Saint Meinrad in 1909 and was ordained on June 27, 1914.

For nearly 13 years, he was assistant pastor at St. Patrick Church, one of Fort Wayne's more prosperous parishes. Then he was pastor at St. Joseph Church, in nearby Garrett, for 17 years. While in Garrett, he commuted to Fort Wayne to serve as Defender of the Bond in the diocesan matrimonial tribunal. He was named dean of the Fort Wayne Deanery in 1941 and a monsignor in 1943.

The 24-county Lafayette diocese, once part of the Diocese of Fort Wayne, was formed in October 1944. Less than a month later, Msgr. Bennett was named bishop, and he was installed on Jan. 18, 1945. He died, after years of poor health, on Nov. 20, 1957, at age 66. He is buried in St. Mary Cemetery, Lafayette.

He once called the bishop's miter "the heaviest headpiece I know of."

"If there should be among you a young man who has aspirations to be the first bishop of a diocese," he said near the end of his life, "let him think carefully over this matter and prayerfully hope that it never happens to him. I do not regret the work, but I can assure anyone that there were many days when the clouds seemed pretty dense and the light quite dim."

A 'tough diocese'

Father P. Keith Hosey, now living at St. Joseph Center in Tipton, said that Bishop Bennett was "given a tough diocese," that consisted primarily of territory that the sprawling Diocese of Fort Wayne didn't want. It was mostly farmland that stretched from the Illinois state line to the Ohio state line, with poor highway access and relatively few Catholics.

The new diocese had 54 parishes, but although it covered nearly 10,000 square miles, it had only 31,700 Catholics. By 1957, it had 58 parishes and 57,000 Catholics. Today, it has 63 parishes and more than 103,000 Catholics.

The Lafayette diocese was established without funding for diocesan offices, or even a bishop's house. Bishop Bennett first lived and worked out of a temporary apartment in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Lafayette. The present bishop's house, purchased with parish contributions in 1945, also served as the Chancery until the Chancery Building was

Father P. It was mostly farmland that stretched from the Illinois state line to the Ohio state line, with poor highway access and relatively few Catholics.

The Lafayette diocese was established without funding for diocesan offices, or even a bishop's house. Bishop Bennett first lived and worked out of a temporary apartment in St. Elizabeth Hospital, Lafayette. The present bishop's house, purchased with parish contributions in 1945, also served as the Chancery until the Chancery Building was built in 1955. Lafayette's St. Mary Church became the cathedral.

"I think there was just the problem of getting everything organized from scratch — quite a problem," said Father Richard Puetz, a member of Bishop Bennett's first ordination class in February 1945. "Nothing was set up for him. Ordinarily, a bishop comes into a diocese that's already running."

Father Puetz, now living at St. Elizabeth Healthcare Center, Delphi, was deacon at Bishop Bennett's funeral Mass. He called him "very considerate, very kind, a very wise and good bishop."

'Grandfather I never had'

When he was a child, Father Ted Rothrock, now pastor of St. Elizabeth Ann Seton Church, Carmel, lived across the street from the bishop. His father was the bishop's physician and a personal friend.

Bishop Bennett would shoot baskets with the Rothrock boys, and he helped them build forts in a wooded area near the bishop's house.

"He would come to the house at Easter, and bring a little lamb cake with him … He'd drop it off for our Easter dinner," said Father Rothrock, who was 6 when Bishop Bennett died.

In many ways, he said, he was "like the grandfather I never had. He was just a very good man who we enjoyed being around … he loved everybody, and he had a marvelous vision of what the community of the Church really was, and was supposed to be. He was really the guiding light."

Visionary bishop

The bishop's 12-year episcopacy began near the end of World War II, and spanned one of the most expansive periods in U.S. history. One of its highlights was the G.I. Bill, which offered a free college education to millions of returning veterans. Largely because of its popularity and success, suburbia, and the middle class, exploded in size. "Baby Boom" babies first filled hospitals, then new schools. Industries were launched and automobile production soared.

Bishop Bennett established parishes in Anderson, Noblesville, Monticello, Carmel and two in West Lafayette. Missions in Wheatfield, Francesville, Medaryville and Lucerne became parishes.

He launched an adult formation program in 1946, and established the diocesan Tribunal. He attracted three communities of women religious, and zealously promoted vocations through institutes and personal letters sent to children of middle-school age. Six Catholic grade schools and two Catholic high schools opened during his tenure. He was the founder of Central Catholic High School, Lafayette.

Bishop Bennett was a visionary, said Msgr. Fred Potthoff, 89, former pastor of Lafayette's cathedral parish and the last surviving Lafayette diocesan priest ordained for the Diocese of Fort Wayne.

"Central Catholic High School was his vision, and he stuck with it," he said. "He also envisioned building a cathedral out there (near the high school), but that never came about. He established new parishes in the diocese where he saw they were needed. The bishop of Fort Wayne couldn't get to those places."

Bishop without pretenses

The task of starting a new diocese must have been especially daunting for Bishop Bennett, who suffered from chronic heart and abdominal problems. Msgr. Potthoff said that he was "never really a well man." As early as Oct. 30, 1949, prayers were requested for his health and doctors told him to lighten his workload.

Still, he found time to actively support the Diocesan Council of Catholic Women, the Knights of Columbus, Te Deum and other groups. He encouraged many young women to become nurses, and the first meeting of the Indiana Catholic Conference of Schools of Nursing was held in the bishop's house.

The bishop maintained his confirmation schedule for years, but finally relinquished most of his duties to Coadjutor Bishop John J. Carberry on May 9, 1956.

"He maybe overdid himself," Msgr. Potthoff said.

Father Hosey, chosen by the bishop to study in Rome, remembered him as "a loveable fellow."

"He was always telling jokes. He was a folksy, down-home sort of person, without pretension," Father said. "He didn't need to be 'the bishop.' He was just a human being first, and he always saw himself as one of the diocesan priests. When he would come to Rome, he would just wear the Roman collar. I was in a cassock; everyone would think he was a Protestant (minister). Today, they all dress that way."

'He knew Hoosiers and their thoughts'

Most Rev. Leo A. Pursley, then-bishop of the Diocese of Fort Wayne, preached the sermon at the funeral Mass. He and Bishop Bennett were close friends.

“I do not think he ever entertained comforting illusions concerning his abilities,” he said. “He recognized his limitations. He made no pretense of great scholarship or great sanctity, though he fully appreciated the rare excellence of both.

“He did not aspire to a position of prominence above that to which he had been assigned. He was content to be himself, to give others what God had given to him. He was endowed with a fund of homely good sense and ready good humor which made him a helpful counselor and a delightful companion.”

“Born in Indiana, he knew Hoosiers and their thoughts,” The Kokomo Tribune said in an editorial. “He had the feel and touch of the people — an important asset in a leader, and one not always possessed by an individual occupying a high place of the kind Bishop Bennett held. He was a most kindly man, easy to approach, quick to sympathize with one’s problems.”

May he rest in peace.

REV. JOHN GEORGE BENNETT, pastor of St. Joseph's Church in the fine little City of Garrett, DeKalb County, was born and reared in Indiana and his service in the priesthood of the Catholic Church had its inception in 1914.

Father Bennett, whose consecrated service has inured greatly to the spiritual and temporal advancement of his present parish, was born at Dunnington, Benton County, Indiana, January 20, 1891, and is a son of John H. and Magdalena M. (Schilling) Bennett, the former of whom was born in Chicago, Illinois, November 5, 1862, and the latter of whom was born at Locust Gap, Pennsylvania, September 5, 1864, her parents, John and Elizabeth (Steinfeldt) Schilling, having come from their native Bavaria, Germany, to the United States in 1849, and both having passed the closing period of their lives in Benton County, Indiana, where the death of Mr. Schilling occurred May 20, 1903, and that of his widow on the 2d of July, 1926, their mortal remains being interred in the Catholic cemetery at Dunnington.

John H. Bennett, a retired farmer who resided in the City of Lafayette, Indiana, was a son of Charles and Mary Louise (Dean) Bennett and was a child of two years when his father entered service as a loyal soldier of the Union in the Civil war, it having been the fate of Charles Bennett to sacrifice his life on the altar of patriotism, as he was killed in the historic explosion of the transport steamer Sultana, which was conveying troops on the Mississippi River in the closing period of the war. John H. Bennett was a devout communicant of the Catholic Church, as is also Mrs. Bennett, in the faith of which they carefully reared their children. John H. Bennett died at Lafayette, October 26, 1930. Of the children, Rev. John G., of this review, is the second eldest, his older brother, William H., who was born November 10, 1886, being a successful farmer near Dunnington; George E., who was born January 16, 1893, is a progressive farmer in that same district of Benton County; Frank J., who Was born February 26, 1897, resides at Lafayette and is a machinist by trade and vocation; Mary C., who was born December 14, 1899, is the wife of Carl Reifenrath and they reside in the City of Lafayette.

Rev. John G. Bennett attended the parochial school of St. Mary's Church at Dunnington, until he had completed the work of the eighth grade, and thereafter he continued his studies one year in the high school at Boswell, a village in his native county. He next passed three years as a student in St. Joseph's College at Rensselaer, Jasper County, and in preparation for the priesthood he passed five years as a student in St. Meinrad Theological Seminary, at St. Meinrad, Spencer County. He was ordained to the priesthood June 27, 1914, and thereafter was assistant to Rt. Rev. Joseph F. Delaney at St. Patrick's Church in the City of Fort Wayne from July 9, 1914, to April 29, 1927, on which latter date he was assigned to his present and important pastoral charge, that of the Church of Sts. Peter and Paul at Garrett, where he has labored with characteristic earnestness and with all of consecrated zeal. The original title of the church of this Catholic parish was Sts. Peter and Paul, but with the completion of the new church edifice, in 1929, the title was changed to St. Joseph's Church. Subject: Re: Elizabeth "Lizzie" Steinfeld Schilling

To: peterstahl3@comcast.net

Peter,
I have, again, looked at the 1860 census for Peter Steinfeld family in Schuylkill Co. PA. Just noted that there is six years between the son, Henry (age 18) and the daughter Mary (age 12). Unless Peter and Magdalena lost a child between those two, Elizabeth "Lizzie" should be here.......so, decided to search for an Elizabeth, age 15, in Schuylkill Co. living in another household. And found one !!! As you know, the spelling of Steinfeld varied with each census. There is an ELIZABETH STANFORD, age 15, living in the household of Joseph and Mariah Marshall in the 1860 census. Joseph and Mariah Marshall are both born in PA as are all of their children, but the Elizabeth Stanford is born in Bavaria. I then checked for any Stanford families in Schuylkill Co. that might be from Bavaria/Germany who could be the parents or family of the Elizabeth, age 15. There are NO Stanford names indexed on that 1860 census living in Schuylkill Co.
Did I find her........certainly not proven, but it looks like a possibility. The gap in the birth of the children of Peter and Magdalena would surely place this Elizabeth in the right age group.
We know that Elizabeth Steinfeld Schilling was born 15 May 1845 and died 2 Jul 1926.
I need to order microfilm from the LDS Family History Center Library for Sankt Ingbert, Bavaria to see if I can find the birth for Elizabeth and the names of her parents........I have already done quite a bit of research in Sankt Ingbert for other names.
Would like your thoughts on the Elizabeth Stanford idea.

JOHANNES: JOHANN immigrated to America in 1852 in order to escape conscription into the Army. He settled in Locustdale Schuylkill County Pa and worked in the anthracite coal mines. In 1868 he moved to Chicago Illinois along with his brother HEINRICH (Henry) where they owned several meat markets which they later sold to Armour Brothers. St Bartholomew Church could not find a record of the marriage in answer to a query in Dec 1994. Living in Parish Grove Township Benton Co Indiana in 1880. JOHANN arrived in the U S on the Ship Gallia from Le Havre France with his uncle JOHANN JACOB and his family landing in New York 22 APR 1852. His passport describes him as being 5 ft 7 in tall, brown hair, brown eyes, clean shaven with a round face and of a healthy complexion with no identifying marks. Moved to Parish Grove Township in 1869. JOHANNES was the 2nd son of JOHANNES MARTIN and CATHARINA SCHULZ METZINGER. According to a family history told to his daughter CELE by AUGUST (GUS) METZINGER when he was 97 years old (1969) each son was sent to America upon reaching the age of 17 to escape conscription into the Army since their father did not believe in the military system. Upon arrival in America all sons, as did almost all of the Metzingers who came to this country, settled in the Pottsville Schuylkill County Pennsylvania area where they became coal miners. Upon receipt of a letter from their mother in 1857 that their father was ill and that she wanted one of them to return the three boys drew straws to see who would go. MARTIN was selected. JOHANNES moved to Chicago Illinois around 1868 where he owned several meat markets with a Mr Hauck. His brothers HEINRICH and MARTIN had joined him in Chicago and helped in the management of them. After several months Armour Brothers bought them out and the three brothers went by train to Sheldon Illinois where they contacted a land agent who took them to Benton County Indiana where each bought 80 acres at a price of $9.00 an acre in what is now the Dunnington area. In the spring of 1870 they moved from Chicago to Benton County with each one having a wagon with his family and belongings. The trip took three days. They lived in their overturned wagons until such time as they could build houses. They built a 2 room house with a loft which was used as bedrooms. (This is a typical house of the German immigrants and a restored house of this type can be seen at the HERR house in Lancaster County Pennsylvania. There were no roads in the county at the time and the nearest trading center was Sheldon Illinois and since money was tight at the time everything bought was by cash no credit. Farm implements were in short supply and were hard to get. On one occasion he and his brother HEINRICH went to Shelton Illinois on business and to get supplies and that evening while coming home were caught in a snowstorm and became lost. After driving for some time they found an empty hunters cabin where they stayed for the night. They had bought a stove and some coal in Sheldon so were able to use this for heat during the night. After a few years of these hardships more settlers moved into the Benton Co area, among them were the Dunns, Woodlocks, Conners, Finnleys and Freelands. Roads and bridges were built and the County was fast becoming settled. The story about their mother asking that one of the boys return home when their father was ill raises a question as to why she would need one of them since her oldest son PETER was still living in Mittelbexbach at the time and was unmarried.Godparents were JOHN SCHULZ and ELISABETHA NIEDER.

I have a picture of Lizzie Schilling, Tussmom (my Gr Gr Grandmother) Magdalene, a Mary Steinfeld Brecker, a Steinfeld man who is younger than the ladies and an unknown Steinfeld lady

How can I send to you in hopes you may be able to identify?

Also, since you were born in Oklahoma — I have been told by a family cousin that Tussmom had a sister who moved to Oklahoma AND she married a Perrong they had a daughter named Mary. I have a family picture with her ca 1915 where she looks to be 20+ yrs old. I've been able to date because I know everyone else in the photo.

Any of this sound familiar??

Thanks for your help and sharing. Greatly appreciate. I need to take some time to step thru your descendant chart.

Do you still live in Oklahoma?

Peter

Mary,

I read your posting dated July 22, 2001 ... My Gr Gr Grandmother was a cousin of Lizzie Steinfeld Schilling ... her name is Magdelene Steinfeld Schappe and her parents Peter & Magdelena Steinfeld moved from Mahanoy Plane, PA to Benton County Indiana about 1875 ... John and Lizzie moved their in 1876 with his two brothers. All are burried in St Mary's Cemetery.

I have much more info and would like to share.

I descend from the Schappe line.

Peter

Subj: Mary Steinfeld
Date: 8/3/06 8:04:57 AM Central Daylight Time
From: peterstahl3@comcast.net (Peter J. Stahl III)
To: Nunne002@aol.com (Mary R M Nunneley)

Mary, Good morning.

I have Mary Steinfeld married to Peter Brecker based on the following info plus family stories of a Mary Brecker as a sister to Magdelena Steinfeld (my gr gr grandmother)

This paragraph came from Bell's History of Northumberland Cnty PA for Mt Carmel, PA

PETER BRECKER, mine foreman, Locust Gap colliery, was born in Bavaria, Germany, January 5, 1844, son of Peter and Magdalena (Omler) Brecker, who emigrated in 1849, and from that date until 1871 the father was employed in the mines of Schuylkill county. In the latter year he removed to Locust Gap, where he was killed by the fall of an embankment, May 5, 1875. Of his family five children are living: Peter; Nicholas; Harriet, Mrs. Alexander Butt, and Charles. Their maternal grandparents, John and Magdalena (Colby) Omler, natives of Germany, settled near St. Clair in 1851. There Mr. Brecker received his education, and began life as a miner. In 1871 he came to Locust Gap, and assumed his present position in 1875. May 15,1867, he married Mary A., daughter of Peter and Magdalena (Luck) Steinfeld, natives of Bavaria, and to this union seven children have been born: Henrietta C.; Elizabeth; Peter N.; Josephine M.; Joseph J.; Henry W., and George F. In politics Mr. Brecker is a Democrat, and has been intrusted with various township offices; the family is Catholic in faith.

The web link is (very near the end of chap 45) -- http://www.webroots.org/library/usahist/honcpa22.html

Also, on Ancestry.com (family trees) I found Peter Bricker that duplicates this info -- knowing that folks tend to copy info and submit to ancestry.com as fact makes this suspicious.

I'm unable to find a brother for Peter Steinfeld (Magdelena's husband) to offer an alternative where Lizzie comes from AND the above of Mary A. married to Peter Brecker -- well I'm just stuck! and could use your help in uncovering this mystery.

The info re Anne Marie Metzinger m Nicholas Steinfeld came from Bob Drobile who lives near me, just west of Philadelphia, PA. I spoke with him in June and he researched this thru the Benton Cnty Hist Soc over the past 10 yrs. Got his name from Virginia Taylor at the Society.

Thanks.

Subject: Re: Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Steinfeld Schilling

To: peterstahl3@comcast.net

Peter,
Beginning to wonder if we are talking about the same Lizzie Steinfeld Schilling who married John.
Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" is listed with her parents, Peter and Magdalena Steinfeld (indexed as Stanfield) in the 1860 census for Schuylkill Co. PA. I can follow her through all census records until her death, as follows:

1860 census / Schuylkill Co. PA with parents / pages 153 and 154
1870 census / Cook Co. IL with husband John Schilling / page 207
1900 census / Benton Co. IN with husband John Schilling (page number ?)
1910 census / Benton Co. IN Elizabeth is a widow/head of household / page 87 B
1920 census / Benton Co. IN / Elizabeth is the mother-in-law living with John Becker and family / page 66 B. Elizabeth immigrated in 1858 and is a naturalized citizen.

All census records are very clear but the spelling of surnames, as usual, vary on the census record years, as do ages. The 1860 census is the important one as follows:

1860 census / Schuylkill Co. PA / Butler Twp / pages 153 and 154
645 - 596

Peter Stanfield	44	Blacksmith	Prussia
Magdalena	42		Prussia
Magdalena	20		Prussia
Henry	18	Blacksmith	Prussia

Mary Stanfield	12	Prussia
Peter	10	Prussia
Catherine	8	Prussia
George	3	Penn
Nicholas	7/12	Penn

I have found no other Mary or Elizabeth or Lizzie Steinfeld on census records that could be the one who married John Schilling except the daughter of Peter and Magdalena. I suppose if one ordered the Indiana death certificate for Lizzie Schilling who died on 2 Jul 1926 in Benton Co. it might show the names of her parents. Since this is not my direct line, I have not ordered the certificate to prove Lizzie's parentage. My line is through John Schilling's brother Peter Schilling. John and Peter Schilling were the children of Michael and Elizabeth Zentz Schilling.

Also, since Nicholas (known son of Peter and Magdalena) is living with John and Lizzie in 1880 and Peter and Magdalena are living next door, it seems likely (though unproven) that Lizzie is the dau of Peter and Magdalena. If she is not their daughter, to whom does she belong ?? Who are the other Steinfelds who immigrated in 1858 and where are they on the 1860 census ??

I do have copies of our previous emails and rather think we have gone over this same road before. I can add nothing further, but still feel that Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Schilling is the correct person on all of the census records.

Your help and suggestions are most welcome, including any information concerning the Mary Stanfield living with Peter and Magdalena in Schuylkill Co. in 1860. If this Mary did not marry John Schilling.......who did she marry ? The Steinfelds moved to Benton Co. IN from Schuylkill Co. PA after the 1870 census

Give me help on this, please.........
Mary R M Nunneley

Mary,

I just found another transcript of the 1860 East Norweigan Township census. I believe the city is St Clair, next to Pottsville Listed is Jacob & Magdalena Schappe, married with no children. His eldest sisters' family lives there as well as his father.

Further down (the street ?) I find the Marshall's with Elizabeth Stanford born in Bier Ger.

Next I find Nicholas & Lizzie Redding -- Lizzie is Jacob Schappe's next oldest sibling -- Bier is noted as place of birth with eldest daughter born in Prussia.

Since I'm not familiar with the geography of Ger I'm at a lost with Bier vs Prussia.

Also, I found no Steinfelds or any variation on the spelling.

I'll continue to search for the answer.

SCHILLING - MEISBURGER

Michael SCHILLING and Elizabeth ZINTZ were born and married in Bavaria, Germany. They and their children migrated to Pennsylvania in the late 1840's and settled in Schuylkill County. Later some of their children moved to Chicago and then to Benton County to settle around St. Mary's Catholic Parish at Dunnington. Michael and Elizabeth joined them prior to 1880 and both are buried in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Their children were Angelina (1831-1905) who married Frank GROSS (1827-1887), Peter (1883-1909) who married Eva meisburger (1845-1926) (Peter and Eva and their family are the subject of this history). John (1835-1906) married Magdalena E. (STEINFELDT) (1845-1926), Mary Magdalene (1837-1905) married John METZINGER (1834-1886), Catherine (1839) married Michael BONEBURGER, Gertrude (1841) married Michael MEISBURGER and Joseph (1842).

Michael and Elizabeth were the great-grandparents of John G. BENNETT (1891-1957), the first Bishop of the Diocese of LaFayette in Indiana. He was made Bishop January 10, 1945.

Peter SCHILLING (1833-1909), son of Michael and Elizabeth (ZINTZ) SCHILLING married Eva MEISBURGER (1845-1927). They were both born in Germany and came to America with their respective parents, settling in Schuylkill County, Pennsylvania, where they met and married. In 1867 they moved to Chicago, where they opened the SCHILLING Butcher Shop on Halsted Street. Later Peter's brothers, John and Joseph, joined them. They were all living in Chicago at the time of the great fire in 1871.

In 1879 they moved to a farm in Benton County, two miles south of Dunnington, which they purchased. They traveled by train to Hoopeston, Illinois and then by wagons to the farm.

Their children were: Elizabeth (1863-1942) who married Joseph KULT (1854-1926), Peter (1864-1923) who never married, Barbara (1867-1956) married John KULT (1858-1945) and lived in Iowa, Joseph (1869) died in infancy, John (1871-1932) never married, Magdalena (1873-1958) married Peter BROWN (1877-1946, Robert Henry (1875-1937) married Elizabeth OBERHOLSER (1878-1963), Mary (1877-1949) married Joseph QUARLIETER and lived in Minnesota, Catherine (1880-1962) married John METZINGER and lived in Missouri, Angeline "Anna" (1882-1961) married John SCOTT, Gertrude (1884-1896) died in childhood, George and Joseph, twins, (1886-1896) died in childhood, and William (1888-1972) married Edith MATTHEWS (1890-1982).

During a typhoid fever epidemic in 1896, George, one of the twins, died and his father, Peter, went to Fowler in a box wagon to get a casket. Upon his return, Joseph, the other twin, and his sister, Gertrude, had also died. William, who was also ill with typhoid at the time, recovered.

I just saw your query in GenForum. I think Carol Mallett is having trouble with her internet server. I have been trying to contact her also. She is a cousin.

Are you related to the Schilling family? My ggrandparents are John and Elizabeth (Steinfeldt) Schilling, and I have been trying to find info on Michael and Theobald for a looooong time!! Unfortunately, I know no German, so the German sites are no help to me. I am desperately looking for documentation on Michael's birth, marriage, etc. and also John. I have heard that they were from St. Ingbert Parish at Metz, France; but have no proof. I have printed countless maps to figure out just where that is at!

I have a copy of the Benton Co., IN History Book printed in 1987 that gave me a lot of info including what you listed in your 7-22-2001 query.

My grandfather, Frank Aloysius Schilling, moved to Madison, MN and then my father, Aloysius John Schilling, moved to Wichita, KS in 1942. So each of my Schilling generations moved their families! I would love to share any info. Hope to hear from you soon.

John Schilling who married Mary Elizabeth "Lizzie" Steinfeld/Steinfeldt was a brother to my great-grandfather, Peter Schilling. I have not done much research on John and Lizzie Schilling, but have the following information, some of which needs more proofs:

(NOTE: Their son, Most Rev. John George Bennett was the first bishop of the Diocese of Lafayette, IN. He was ordained 27 Jun 1914, appointed Bishop 11 Nov 1944. He died on 20 Nov 1957)

HENRY SCHILLING
born / May 1885 / Benton Co. IN died / 4 Dec 1912 / Benton Co. IN buried / 7 Dec 1912 / St. Mary's Cemetery / Benton Co. IN (NOTE: not certain this is the son of John and Lizzie. Some say Henry was born 18 Jul 1885. The interment records for St. Mary's Church shows the following:
1912 - Henry Schilling. died Dec 4 and buried Dunnington Dec 7. Age 27. Cause of death...appendicitis.

ANNA SCHILLING
born / Jul 1889 / Benton Co. IN died / unknown
married / 10 Feb 1914 / Benton Co. IN to JAMES L. MEYER

This is really all I have on John and Lizzie Steinfeld Schilling and do not really do research on their family, except to tie them to my great-grandfather, Peter Schilling.
If you can make any corrections to what I have from various people many years ago, would be happy to receive those corrections.

Mary,

I read your posting dated July 22, 2001 ... My Gr Gr Grandmother was a cousin of Lizzie Steinfeld Schilling ... her name is Magdelene Steinfeld Schappe and her parents Peter & Magdelena Steinfeld moved from Mahanoy Plane, PA to Benton County Indiana about 1875 ... John and Lizzie moved their in 1876 with his two brothers. All are burried in St Mary's Cemetery.

I have much more info and would like to share.

I descend from the Schappe line.

Peter

You will need to, please, send anything regular mail. I have had so much trouble with my computer when I try to download anything sent to me.

I have the following (as transcribed by my son, Dick):

St. Joseph Church - St. Ingbert, Germany

In the year 1835, in fact on the eleventh day of February, was born and baptized by John Pfeiffer, a priest, a legitimate son of Michael Schilling, a citizen and worker of the mountain from St. Ingbert and Elisabeth Zenz, a Catholic couple, to whom the name John was given. The godfather was John Zenz, a (*salutus) from Schanppbach (?); the godmother in fact was Catherine Schilling from St. Ingbert. Thus I attest, J. Pfeiffer, priest at St. Ingbert.

NOTE: *salutus - Dick said this word probably was an alternate form of salutator, and means a visitor or one visiting from Schanppbach.

St. Joseph Church - St. Ingbert, Germany

In the year 1804 on the twenty-third of August in the fifth ____?____in the twelfth year of the Republic, was baptised Michael, legitimate son of Theobald Schilling, a hired man, and Margaret Leonard, a couple of residents of St. Ingbert. He was born at the same hour as four in the early morning. The godfather was Michael Leonard, husband of Catherine Schnabel residing at St. Engelbert (Ingbert). The godmother was Maria, born Schirer, wife of Hubert Schilling from St. Ingbert. The godmother declared that she did not know how to write and she registered herself. The sign or mark for Maria "X". In faith, W. Torsch at St. Engelbert (Ingbert), rector.

As you can see, the church records are so great. They always list the father and the mother by her maiden name. Sure helps with this genealogy searching.

Much of my material is just work sheets and have not been entered in any computer program. At age 70, I am not going to start entering over 40 notebooks of material on various families. It would probably take eight hours each day for the next umpteen years.

Will get the material copied next week and in the mail.

Later,
Mary R. M. N.
Bartlesville

PS - many of the Metzinger bunch from Benton Co. IN came to Caldwell, KS about 1905.......some still live there.

Hello Mary,
Thank you for answering my email so soon! I have been in contact with Robert Drobile and I have sent him information on my ggrandfather, John Schilling, and whatever I have. I would be very happy to send copies to you either by regular mail, or I could send it email. I usually send a genealogy report from Family Tree Maker. Would that be all right? I have copies of some documents of my grandfather, Frank A. Schilling, and his wife, Margaret Kack. I don't have documentation on John back. It is what I have heard from my family and where I have found them in some of the census. I also have a few pages from history books. I would appreciate very much any info you might have on your branch. I am especially interested in Theobald and Michael since I have very little on them. I didn't know that Theobald's wife's name was Margaret Leonard. As you can see from my address below, we don't live too far apart. We have visited Bartlesville a few times. It is a beautiful city. Hope we can keep in touch.

I would be happy to send my info by mail. I will try to get it together tomorrow. Actually, I would prefer to do it that way myself.

My new computer is giving me trouble too. I couldn't print out your message, so I sent an answer before I might lose your email. As it was, I still have it.

When I got my first computer, I was the one who said I would never go online. I got it only for genealogy records. I enjoy the internet now so much! But I still like having the info in a program that I can find info easy.

Talk to you later,

Jan Cummins

MAGDALENE died from paralysis. JOHANNES: JOHANN immigrated to America in 1852 in order to escape conscription into the Army. He settled in Locustdale Schuylkill County Pa and worked in the anthracite coal mines. In 1866 he moved to Chicago Illinois along with his brother HEINRICH (Henry) where they owned several meat markets which they later sold to Armour Brothers. St Bartholomew Church could not find a record of the marriage in answer to a query in Dec 1994. Living in Parish Grove Township Benton Co Indiana in 1880. JOHANN arrived in the U S on the Ship Gallia from Le Havre France with his uncle JOHANN JACOB and his family landing in New York 22 APR 1852. His passport describes him as being 5 ft 7 in tall, brown hair, brown eyes, clean shaven with a round face and of a healthy complexion with no identifying marks. Moved to Parish Grove Township in 1869. JOHANNES was the 2nd son of JOHANNES MARTIN and CATHARINA SCHULZ METZINGER. According to a family history told to his daughter CELE by AUGUST (GUS) METZINGER when he was 97 years old (1969) each son was sent to America upon reaching the age of 17 to escape conscription into the Army since their father did not believe in the military system. Upon arrival in America all sons, as did almost all of the Metzingers who came to this country, settled in the Pottsville Schuylkill County Pennsylvania area where they became coal miners. Upon receipt of a letter from their mother in 1857 that their father was ill and that she wanted one of them to return the three boys drew straws to see who would go. MARTIN was selected. JOHANNES moved to Chicago Illinois around 1868 where he owned several meat markets with a Mr Hauck. His brothers HEINRICH and MARTIN had joined him in Chicago and helped in the management of them. After several months Armour Brothers bought them out and the three brothers went by train to Sheldon Illinois where they contacted a land agent who took them to Benton County Indiana where each bought 80 acres at a price of $9.00 an acre in what is now the Dunnington area. In the spring of 1870 they moved from Chicago to Benton County with each one having a wagon with his family and belongings. The trip took three days. They lived in their overturned wagons until such time as they could build houses. They built a 2 room house with a loft which was used as bedrooms. (This is a typical house of the German immigrants and a restored house of this type can be seen at the HERR house in Lancaster County Pennsylvania. There were no roads in the county at the time and the nearest trading center was Sheldon Illinois and since money was tight at the time everything bought was by cash no credit. Farm implements were in short supply and were hard to get. On one occasion he and his brother HEINRICH went to Shelton Illinois on business and to get supplies and that evening while coming home were caught in a snowstorm and became lost. After driving for some time they found an empty hunters cabin where they stayed for the night. They had bought a stove and some coal in Sheldon so were able to use this for heat during the night. After a few years of these hardships more settlers moved into the Benton Co area, among them were the Dunns, Woodlocks, Conners, Finnleys and Freelands. Roads and bridges were built and the County was fast becoming settled. The story about their mother asking that one of the boys return home when their father was ill raises a question as to why she would need one of them since her oldest son PETER was still living in Mittelbexbach at the time and was unmarried.Godparents were JOHN SCHULZ and ELISABETHA NIEDER.

7 Sept 1994

Dear Mom:

Enclosed are the best stabs that I can make at these texts. As I suspected, most are formulaic; once you can translate one of them, the others are pretty much the same, making the task of deciphering the illegible scripts much easier. The words I couldn't figure out are indicated by empty brackets, while the ones that I guessed at (or that I am uncertain as to the true meaning for this time period) are italicized.

For the most part, the missing words seem pretty irrelevant--names, dates, and locations seem fairly clear in all of the records. The uncertain parts seem to lend much of the "personal" color, though, and it would be interesting to know about occupations, idioms, and ceremonial language of that time period in Europe. I don't know any of that, so I can only hazard guesses, which I have done in the notes to each entry.

The texts are in chronological order, and are given in Latin (as I have deciphered it) and then in a fairly literal English translation. The translations are not the most pleasing to the ear (and not the way I would do it for literary purposes) but I tried to keep a fairly close relationship between the Latin and English word order so that you could match words up for future reference and for dictionary work. Also, I know few German placenames (and I don't have a good German dictionary with a gazeteer), so entries such as "Schnappbach" or "Mariannethal" are based on text only, and not on my knowledge that such places exist; they could be "Schnappburg" or something like that. I'll leave that to you to research.

Finally, on the baptism of Peter Schilling: the final line of the text (not counting the vicar's signature) appears as follows:

" ria (last name) [unknown word 1] [unknown word 2] ex St. Ingbert."

Unknown word 2 looks to me like "soluti" which could be the genitive singular of the participle of the verb "solvo" (to free or loosen), in which case I would hazard that it means "of a free(d)man." If that is the case, then unknown word 1 is almost certainly some noun of relation (e.g., mother, sister, wife, etc.), but it doesn't look like any I know. The last four letters could be a badly-written "c-r-u-s" which might indicate "socrus" (mother-in-law), but the first two letters don't look like "s-o." Maria's last name begins with a capital "B" but I don't see the remaining letters. The freeman I'm pretty sure of; the rest is anybody's guess.

Hope this helps. Still think it's interesting that Michael and Elisabeth got married late in January (26) and had their first baby almost exactly 7 months later (August 1).

Love,

me

NOTE: This letter and the following translations for the church records pertaining to the Schilling family of St. Ingbert were done by our son, Dr. Richard D. Nunneley, Jr. He is a professor at the University of Minnesota (Minneapolis).

Anno millesimo octingentisimo quarto vigesima tertia Augusti--quinta [ ] duodecimo Reipublicae anno--baptizatus est Michael filius legitimus Theobaldi Schilling mercenarii et Margarethae Leonard conjugum commorantium[1] in St. Ingbert. Natus est eadem hora quarto matutina. Patrinus fuit Michael Leonard maritus Catherinae Schnabel commorans in Sengrt.[2] Matrina fuit Maria nata Schirer uxor Huberti Schilling ex St. Ingbert. Matrina declarabat se nescire scribere, se subsignavit, signum Mariae (names)

{ In the year 1804 on the twenty-third of August--in the fifth [ ] in the twelfth year of the Republic--was baptized Michael, legitimate son of Theobald Schilling, a hired man, and Margaret Leonard, a couple (or, "man and wife") of residents at St. Ingbert. He was born at the same hour as four in the early morning. The godfather was Michael Leonard, husband of Catherine Schnabel residing at St. Engelbert. The godmother was Maria, born Schirer, wife of Hubert Schilling from St. Ingbert. The godmother declared that she did not know how to write (and) she registered herself[3]. The sign (or "mark") for Maria ["X"] (names)
In faith (or perhaps "faithfully") W. Torsch at St. Engelbert. rector.}

[1] This word literally means "of those lingering or delaying." It could mean persons staying or visiting in the parish (perhaps not official residents), but it also might be an idiomatic term for parishioners.
[2] I assume this is an abbreviation for "St. Engelbert" much as "St. Ingt" appears later as an abbreviation for "St. Ingbert."
[3] "Subsignavit" literally means "She signed below," but also is a legal term for registering one's mark.

Anno millesimo octingentisimo trigesimo die vigesima sexta januarii praemiis trinis proclamationibus[1] ego Joannes Pfeiffer parochus matrimonio junxi adolescentes Michaelem Schilling, filium legitimum defuncti Theobaldi Schilling civis et operarii montani[2] ex St. Ingbert et Margarethae Leonhard conjugum catholicorum; et Elisabetham Zenz filiam legitimam defuncti Francisci Zenz civis et operarii montani ex Z(o)llingen et Catharinae (H)/(W)aber conjugum catholicorum ratione famulatis ex officina fuliginis [3]prope St. Ingbert. praesentibus testibus Joanne Schilling et Petro Bauer ex St. Ingbert. Ita testor J. Pfeiffer parochus in St. Ingbert.

{In the year 1830 on the twenty-sixth day of January, (See below) I, John Pfeiffer, a priest, united in matrimony the young people Michael Schilling, legitimate son of the deceased Theobald Schilling, a citizen and worker of the mountain from St. Ingbert and Margaret Leonhard, a Catholic couple; and Elisabeth Zenz, legitimate daughter of the deceased Francis Zenz, a citizen and worker of the mountain from Zollingen and Catherine H/Waber, a Catholic couple (See below) near St. Ingbert. Present as witnesses John Schilling and Peter Bauer from St. Ingbert. Thus I attest. J. Pfeiffer, priest at St. Ingbert.}

[1] This phrase must be ceremonial and idiomatic for this time period. "Praemium" means "reward" or "gift" or "award"; "trinus" means "three at a time." So the phrase could mean something like "Gifts three at a time having been proclaimed" or "By three awards proclaimed together," or something like that. I don't have a clue. "Proclamationibus" also doesn't appear as a strict form in my dictionary, so this too may have a specific technical meaning of which I am unaware.

[2] "Worker of the mountain" is a literal translation. Were they foresters? Miners? Did they simply live (and farm) on the mountain, as opposed to the lowlands or in town? No way of knowing here.

[3] This is a very interesting phrase. In the first place, I don't know if "famulatis" or "fuliginis" are correct textual guesses. "Fuliginis" seems to have three dotted "i's" and there don't seem to be any other words close to either one of these two. "Ratione" means reason, business, in the matter of, etc. "Famulatis" is not in my dictionaries, but "famulatus" means servitude or service. "Fuliginis" means soot or eyebrow powder. The phrase could mean something like "by reason of [or in the business of] servitude from the eyebrow powder (soot?) factory near St. Ingbert." This is a literal rendering which obviously doesn't make much sense; I suspect that--by 1800--some of these words took on more specific meanings than they had in classical Latin. "Ratione famulatus" could be something like a legal term for indentured servitude; perhaps, following her husband's death, Catherine H/Waber was forced to work in a powder (gunpowder, perhaps?) factory near St. Ingbert. I can't get any more interpretive than this, and I could be on the wrong track entirely!

Anno millesimo octingentisimo trigesimo prima die vero[1] primus Augusti nata est et altera baptizata est a Joanne Pfeiffer parocho filia legitima Michaelis Schilling civis et operarii montani ex St. Ingbert et Elisabeth Zenz conjugum catholicorum, cui nomen Angela impositum est. Patrinus erat Petrus Bauer; matrina vero Angela Zenz ex fabrica vitrea de Mariannethal. Ita testor J. Pfeiffer parochus in St. Ingbert.

{In the year 1830 on the first day, in fact, the first of August, was born and on the second (day) was baptized by John Pfeiffer, a priest, a legitimate daughter of Michael Schilling, a citizen and worker of the mountain from St. Ingbert and Elisabeth Zenz, a Catholic couple, to whom the name Angela was given. The godfather was Peter Bauer; the godmother in fact was Angela Zenz from the glass factory of Mariannethal. Thus I attest J. Pfeiffer, priest at St. Ingbert.}

[1] For some reason, this weird "vero" starts showing up in the texts. It's usually used as an emphatic--"indeed!" or "truly!"--in classical Latin. Maybe it has a legal or canon law meaning here (i.e., that the person is known to the priest) or that the date is truly verified.

Anno millesimo octingentisimo trigesimo tertio die vero vigesim(o) quint(o)[1] julii natus et altera die eiusdem baptizatus est a [ ] rev. domino Joanne Pfeiffer parocho in St. Ingbert filius legitimus Michaelis Schilling civis et operarii et Elisabethae Zentz conjugum ex St. Ingbert, cui nomen Petrus impositum est. [1] These are the wrong stem endings--should be "vigesima" and "quinta." Vicar Diebold needs a little work on the feminine noun endings.

Anno millesimo octingentisimo trigesimo quinto die vero undecima Februarii natus et baptizatus est a Joanne Pfeiffer parocho filius legitimus Michaelis Schilling civis et operarii montani ex St. Ingbert et Elisabethae Zenz conjugum catholicorum, cui nomen Joannes impositum est. The godfather was John Zenz [ ] from Schnappbach(?); the godmother in fact was Catharine Schilling from St. Ingbert. Thus I attest J. Pfeiffer, priest at St. Ingbert.}

[1] This missing word is almost certainly a masculine singular noun for a type of occupation--I can't get enough of a handle on any of the letters to make a guess. guess #2: it could be "salutus" which, by this time, could be an alternate form of "Salutator" ≡ "a visitor" or "one visiting from Schnappbach"

Anno millesimo octingentisimo trigesimo septimo die vero duodecima julii obiit Franciscus Schilling filius legitimus Michaelis Schilling civis et operarii montani ex St. Ingbert et Elisabethae Zenz conjugum catholicorum, minus mensis aetatis qui die decima quarta julii in cemeterio parochiale(i) est sepultus. Anno domini 1844 die decima sexta Augusti obiit et postridie in cemeterio parochiale(i) sepultus est Henricus Schilling, filius Elisabethae Zentz et Michaelis Schilling conj. cath. in St. Ingt. anno aetatis scire [1]secundo. ita testor (name)

[1] Not sure about this, but it makes sense, I also looked at some other entries, and it appears to be "scire," from the verb "scio." Used as an adverb, it can mean "understood."

Anno domini millesimo octingentisimo quadragesimo quarto die trigesimo Octobris nata est et prima Novembris baptizata est filia legitima Michaelis Schilling et Elisabethae Zenz, conjugum catholicorum in St. Ingbert, cui nomen Gertrudis impositum est. He is an ophthalmologist after many years of study. Diane Messner is a computer expert having worked with her present company for several years.

Daniel A. Messner, Jr., was born February 11, 1860 and died in January of 1936. He was in the United States Who's Who because he raised Dan Patch, the world's fastest pacing horse. He had a dry goods store that he ran successfully after he bought out his father. Maude Marie Messner was a homemaker and a very good mother.

Daniel A. Messner, Sr., came to Pine Village around 1850. He was a carpenter and built houses and barns in four counties. He bought a half interest in the Smith Dry Goods store, and later Daniel, Jr., bought out Smith. Later Daniel, Sr., retired and sold his interest to Daniel, Jr.

Richard L. Messner graduated from high school and attended DePauw on a Rector Scholarship for one year. He farmed on the family farm for five years and then went into the store and worked for forty-eight years.

Gladys (Kjos) Messner graudated from high school in Lanesboro, Minnesota, and then attended Minneapolis Business College.

Rick was in ROTC all the years he was in college, and went to camp in Georgia for a time after graduating. He was a Captain and could have stayed in the Army but chose civilian life instead.

Richard L. Messner, Sr., the author of this history, met his wife while visiting California. He had gone to California with Graydon "Biz" Miller and Graydon's brother-in-law to see Michigan play Southern California in the Rose Bowl game. We were married in August.

Gladys (Kjos) Messner has two sisters, Agnes and Gertrude, and one brother, Earl. Earl is a very successful contractor having built many houses and condominums in Minnesota, Arizona, and Florida. Gertrude and Agnes of Minneapolis both are retired school teachers; Earl is also retired.

Marian M. Grazier attended preparatory school in Pennsylvania. From there she went four years at Goucher College of Baltimore, Maryland. She taught three years before marrying Mr. Joseph Grazier. Submitted by Richard L. Messner

LLOYD Q. METTES

Lloyd Quenton and Wanda Juanita (Stanfield) Mettes were born in 1922 at Atlanta, Macon County, Missouri. Lloyd was raised on a farm and Wanda lived in the small town. Both graduated from Atlanta High School in 1940.

Wanda continued her education by going to Gem City Business College at Quincy, Illinois. Lloyd enlisted in the Army Air Corps in December 1941, and went through radio school. While there he qualified for Aviation Cadet Training and went through pilot training. He was a P-38 Photo Recon pilot in the South Pacific during World War II and left the active service in December 1945 but remained in the reserves.

Wanda and Lloyd were married afer he completed Flying School in 1943 and before going overseas. They came to Oxford, Indiana, in February 1946 so Lloyd could attend Purdue University, where he graduated with a degree in Civil Engineering in 1950. During the summers and times off from school, Lloyd worked as a carpenter with Mr. Clayton Wilkinson who was a local building contractor. Lloyd started back to Purdue in February 1951 working toward a Masters Degree, but was recalled to Active Duty with the Air Force during the Korean War and again served in the Pacific Area, this time as an Engineering Officer and retired from the Air Force in 1982, as a Lieutenant Colonel. He received his Masters Degree from Purdue in 1954.

Lloyd worked in Greenland, the National Test Road in Illinois and five years with the Indiana Highway Department before starting business on his own in 1962 as Mettes Engineering and Surveying with Wanda doing the office work. Much of the subdivision work in Oxford was done by Lloyd, as has much of the Land Survey and Subdivision work in the surrounding area and counties.

Wanda and Lloyd have three children, Roger Lynn 1946, Douglas Von 1947 and Wynona Bess 1950. All three graduated from Purdue University. Submitted by Lloyd Q. Mettes

MEMORIES OF ANN METZINGER

After graduating from high school I chose teaching as a career. I began in a one room school in 1924. This school was on the corner east of the present Pipe Line.

Ann Metzinger

My conveyance to school was a klondike and a horse which I drove from my sister's home. It was a major feat learning to tie the horse properly so I would have a way home.

The room had a large stove which I fired with coal. We also had an old fashioned oil stove which we used to make soup and hot chocolate occasionally. I had 10 pupils and 7 grades, ranging from one up — and hopefully everyone learned something. School lunches were carried in half-gallon syrup buckets. Of course no playground equipment and no indoor toilet facilities.

Despite all the obstacles we carried on and my second year was in the same school with 14 pupils and 5 grades.

My first year's salary was $896.00. At that time the County Superintendent visited the schools at various intervals. My Superintendent was a very kind man — M.F. O'Rear. At the end of the years, we were issued a success grade.

In 1926 I began teaching in Talbot and stayed there with Grades one and two for six years. We also had a big stove, but I was able to get someone to fire it which was a big help. You may well believe we had many exciting and interesting things happen. I pulled many teeth, dried a lot of tears, but we tried to do well in all our work.

In 1932, I went to Ambia and spent 36 happy years there. The many and exciting things that happened would be a volume in itself.

I finished my teaching career with 3 years in Boswell and retired in 1971. So many happy memories because I loved my work.

(Born Oct. 31, 1906 in Dunnington neighborhood — died in Green Hill Manor Nursing Home, Fowler, Feb. 25, 1986) (Editor's note)

METZINGER FAMILY

John Metzinger was born in Rhinus Bavaria, Germany. He had three sons, John, Martin, and Henry. The boys came to America when each of the boys turned seventeen. They went to Pottsville, Penn. and worked in the coal mines. Martin went back to Germany to be with his mother when his father was ill. He was put into the army and served two years. He went back to live with his mother until he married Catherine Omhler. They lived in Germany till his mother passed away. He sold all the property and came to the United States with his wife and sons Martin, 5 years old and John who died on the ship and was buried in New York City, also a niece of his wife, Mary Omhler.

Leonard and Lucille Metzinger Family

They went to Chicago where his brothers John and Henry had moved. John and Henry now owned seven meat markets in Chicago. Martin managed one for a while until Armour bought all the meat markets they owned.

The three brothers came by train to this part of the county seeking to buy land. They stopped at Sheldon, Ill. and John Fleming (a land agent) brought them to Benton County area. Each bought land in the vicinity now known as Dunnington.

Martin's wife stayed in Chicago until after Allen was born. Then she and her children and her niece came to join Martin.

August the first child born to this union in Indiana arrived on August 22, 1871, then the following children: Emma, Gertrude and Elizabeth. August's wife, Catherine, died two weeks after Elizabeth was born, this was in 1876 and she was 36 years old.

One year after the death of his wife, Martin married Mary Omhler. To this union were born eight children.

Leonard and Lucille have 40 grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

JOSEPH H. METZINGER

My grandfather, John Metzinger, came to America in 1852 from Mettelbexbach in the Kingdom of Bavaria, Geremany. He was eighteen years old and settled in Locust Dale, Schuylkill Co., Pennsylvania and worked in the coal mines.

In August 1857 he married Magdalena Schilling the daughter of Michael and Elizabeth Schilling at St. Bartholomew Catholic Church in Patterson, Pennsylvania.

In 1865 they moved to Chicago, Illinois where he had a meat market. In 1869 he came to Indiana and bought land in Parish Grove Township near the village that is now known as Dunnington. In September 1871 he brought his family here and farmed and bought more land.

They had 13 children, 5 survived and lived to adulthood. Gertrude (1861-1887), John (1862-1932), Catherine (1868-1925), Anna (1870-1970) and Joseph (1873-1942), (my father).

Joseph Metzinger was born in Dunnington and married Catherine Marron the daughter of Dennis and Catherine Marron, Irish immigrants who lived and farmed in this vicinity.

My father and mother were married in St. Mary's Church, Dunnington, Indiana on September 21, 1899. They had eight children: Paul (1901-1974) married Rose Corcoran, no children; Alice (1902-1949) married Harry Westring, one son, J. Thomas; Clifford (1903-1968) married Jean McDaniel, one son, Joseph; Magdalen (1909-1964) married Willard Miller, one adopted son, Dennis; Esther (1912-) married Bolan Day, two daughters Carol and Judith, one son, David; Clara (1914-) married Raymond Lanoue, 5 sons: James, Frederick, Steven, Douglas and Gary, 2 daughters: Ruth and Catherine; Lorraine (1918-1970) unmarried and I am Agnes (1906-) unmarried, and I still live in Dunnington where we all grew up.

My grandmother built a house on this acre in the early 1900. It burned down in 1922 and my father built the house I still live in.

My grandfather died in 1886 and my grandmother in 1905, they, with my father and mother and my deceased brothers and sisters, are buried in St. Mary's Cemetery, Dunnington. Agnes C. Metzinger

METZINGER-GREIVES

Henry Metzinger (1840-1914) came to America from Germany in the year 1866. He landed in New York and traveled west to work in the Pennsylvania coal mines. After some time, he went to Mineral Point, Wisconsin, then to Chicago where he worked in a saloon for his room and board. He met and married Mary M. Theno, (1849-1918) and began operating a meat market. Later, joined by his brothers, John and Martin Metzinger, they came to Benton County and each bought 80 acres west of Dunnington for $9.00 per acre. It was a three-day journey to travel from Chicago in wagons, one wagon per family. Living in the overturned wagon boxes until a house could be built, they started farming in 1870. Sheldon, Illinois was the closest trading market and trails were the only means of travel a good part of the way. Bridges across creeks were non-existant. During the winter months ice formed over the streams, but it was not uncommon to break through with the weight of a team of horses and a loaded supply wagon. Trade was cash or "no sell" and money was scarce so soon after the Civil War.

Henry's first corn crop was planted by turning the tough prairie sod with horses and plow, and a file had to be carried at all times to sharpen the blade because it dulled so quickly. Then Henry made holes in the overturned sod with an axe, and Mary would drop grains of corn in and cover it by stepping on it. They sold their first spare grain to Mr. Sumner, a cattle feeder near Earl Park. Families such as the Dunns, Woodlocks, Conners, Findleys and Freelands had moved to the area and a settlement began.

Henry and Mary lived eleven years on that 80 acres, then sold it and bought prairie ground 1 mile south and 3/4 mile east of Dunnington, homesteading again in 1881 on the farm I now own.

Henry and Mary Metzinger helped to establish the St. Mary's Catholic Parish at Dunnington and raised a family of nine children. They were: Henry J. Metzingere, born October 4, 1870; John F. Metzinger, born August 12, 1872; Gertrude (Metzinger) Schmidt; born September 27, 1876; Peter Leon Metzinger, born September 17, 1878; John Baptist Metzinger, born October 22, 1880; Frank Xavier Metzinger, born December 23, 1882; Nicholas Metzinger, born January 9, 1885; Anthony E. Metzinger, born June 15, 1890; and my mother, Rose Magdaline (Metzinger) Greives, born August 8, 1874.

GRIEVES-PETERS

Herman Greive (1870-1942) lived southeast of Indianapolis in Hamburg, Indiana and worked for the railroad there. One night Herman and an engineer came upon a herd of wild horses grazing on the tracks. Instead of slowing the train, the engineer, (who had been drinking) rammed through the horses killing many of them. Herman was disgusted by this and quit his job. He gathered his belongings and decided to set off for an adventure. After saying goodbye to his father, Herman Henry Greive, Sr., and his mother, Gertrude (Peters) Greive, he boarded a train bound for the 1893 Chicago World's Fair. He traveled as far as Fowler, Indiana, when he ran out of money. He stayed in Benton County working for farmers in the Fowler and Dunnington area, never reaching the Chicago Fair. The area farmers had trouble pronouncing Herman's last name so he changed it to Greives. He met my mother, Rose Metzinger, (1874-1950) at a barn dance at the Metzinger farm. They were married January 17, 1899. After a time farming in Kansas, Herman and Rose Greives returned home, bought and farmed her father's land. They raised four sons and three daughters. They were: Henry H. Greives, (Jan. 15, 1900-Dec. 26, 1975); Omer C. "Hoot" Greives, (June 20, 1907-Jan. 19, 1980); George Greives (Apr. 21, 1901-); Mary Greives, (1905-1931); Pearl Greives, (June 1, 1903-May 11, 1983); Isabell (Greives) Jashaway, (1909-); and myself, Sylvester J. Greives (Dec. 11, 1914-). Herman, with Rose and children, finally made it to a world's fair. Thirty-two years after his first attempt, they travelled to Chicago to attend the 1933 World's Fair.

GRIEVES-KIRSCH

I, Sylvester J. Greives was born on the same farm my grandfather Metzinger homesteaded. I helped my father farm with horse and plow. I attended Ambia High School, graduating in 1933. MARTIN METZINGER, SR.

Martin Metzinger, Sr., was born in Rhinus, Bavaria, Germany. He had three sons: John, Martin and Henry. Martin Sr. did not believe in the military system of Germany (when a boy reached age eighteen he was automatically drafted into the army). Because of this, when John, the oldest, neared eighteen, he was sent to America. Likewise, Martin and Henry went when they were nearly eighteen.

When they arrived in America, the Metzingers settled in Pottsville, Pennsylvania, and worked in the coal mines.

Lewis Metzinger Family: Back Row: Paul, Beatrice, Mae, Agnes, Harold, Kenneth. Front: Minnie, Elizabeth "Betty", Lewis.

After working two years, they received a letter from their mother telling them of the grave illness of their father. She wanted one of the boys to come home to be with her. Unable to decide which one should go, they drew straws. Martin was the one to go back to Germany. He had been home only nine days when his father died. Ten days later, he was drafted into the army. After serving two years, Martin lived with his mother until he married Catherine Omhler. Martin and Catherine lived in Germany approximately six years, then sold their property and came to America with their son Martin, five years old, a son John, two, and Catherine's niece Mary Omhler. John died on shipboard and was buried in New York.

In the meantime, John and Henry left Pennsylvania and went to Chicago. John and a man named Hauck owned seven or eight meat markets. Martin came and managed one until the owners sold out to Armour Brothers.

The three brothers came by train to what is now Parish Grove Township, Benton County, Indiana. It was nearly all prairie with only a few settlers. They stopped at Sheldon, Illinois, contacted a land agent, John Fleming. Fleming brought them to the above area. Each bought land to the west of what is now Dunnington.

Martin's wife did not come then because she was expecting a child. Allen was born in Chicago. Then, Catherine, Allen and her niece, Mary, came to join Martin.

The men drove down in wagons, bringing plows and other farming implements. Martin built a two-room house with a loft, which was used as bedrooms. During its construction, their protection from the elements was the overturned wagons.

August was the first child born to Martin and Catherine after they settled in Indiana on August 22, 1871. Then came Emma in 1872 and Gertrude in 1874.

In those days, people drew water from dug wells. One day, Catherine went to get water. The board cover on the well broke, and she fell into waist deep water. It was some time until they rescued Catherine and she was put to bed. Not long after, Elizabeth was born, but Catherine never recovered. Catherine died at the age of 36 in 1876 and was the first person buried in what is now St. Mary's Cemetery, Dunnington. Martin's brother John had donated land for a cemetery prior to Catherine's death.

Two years after Catherine's death (according to the marriage license in the Benton County courthouse), Martin married Mary Omhler. To this union, eight children were born.

In 1881, Martin sold his land (eighty acres) near Dunnington to his brother John for $3000. On the same day, Martin bought 200 acres near Ambia for $7000. He and his family moved there where they lived until he died in 1905. Mary died in 1935.

MILBURN FAMILY

My father and mother were William Brisco Milburn (1885-1925) and Myrtle Inman (1885-1919) both born at Lebenon, KY. They had three children: Alma Pearl Milburn (1908-   ) now living at Hardingsburg, KY; Hubert Lee Milburn (1909-1962) and Robert Harold Milburn (1911-   ), all born at Lebanon, KY. When I was three weeks old my parents moved to a farm one mile east and one-half mile south of Pine Village, just south of the Arba Brutis farm. Next, they moved just south of Boswell in Warren County, just east of old State Road 41 on a gravel road now State Road 26 to a farm known as The Fletcher Spring's Farm. In 1916 the family moved to a farm four miles east of Rochdale where their fourth child William Brisco Milburn (1918-   ) was born. World War I was on then and a flu epidemic took most new mothers' lives and it took mine. My father tried to keep the family all together by having a housekeeper for two years, then he married a woman with two children so we could all stay one family but to no avail, our stepmother made all four of us children leave home. They moved to Lafayette in 1922.

I lived in a boarding house near my dad's home and sold papers on the streets of Lafayette to pay my board and room. My dad and stepmother had three children Ruth Eileen Milburn (1921) now Mrs. Curtis Harold Miller, Hemet, CA; James Vendal Milburn (1923) address unknown, and a boy who died at birth.

When I was twelve years old I went to work on a dairy farm near Dation, IN and lived with an Amish family. This man worked the dairy farm for Dr. Russhlee. I learned to milk a cow as quick as any man and stayed there almost a year; from this experience I could get work on any dairy farm.

I came to Boswell, to work on building old State Road 41 from Attica to Lake Village and then I worked on a dairy farm for Harley C. Johnson, south ton. She graduated from Freeland Park High School. Basketball and cheerleading were high on the list of fun things to do. She graduated in a class of thirteen students in the year of 1943. Her first job was a clerk in Dumas 5&10¢ store and later worked as a telephone operator for Indiana Bell.

She met Lawrence E. Scherer (better known as "Bud") at a dance at "Bates Hall"; dancing was a favorite pastime of this era. Bud was the youngest son of Adam and Emma (Bessler) Scherer. Adam came to the United States with his father from Germany at the early age of seven. The family settled in southern Indiana. He later met and married Emma Bessler. Adam and Emma had nine children: Theodore, Joseph, Bertha (Scherer) Wittenauer, Anthony, Leona (Scherer) Monjon, Leo, Bernard, Rose (Scherer) Pilotte, and the youngest son, Lawrence.

This was about the time of World War II. Bud's brother Bernard was in the Army, and soon Bud enlisted in the Navy. Bud spent six weeks at boot camp at Waukegan, Illinois and was soon sent to the west coast to be assigned to the Battleship USS New Jersey. Bud left from California for the Pacific, where they saw plenty of action and did not see land again for ten months. Every sailor aboard ship was very happy when they hit dry dock and could put their feet on dry land on the American soil. Bud came home on leave and we were married May 15, 1945. We went to Puget Sound near Seattle, Washington for a honeymoon of one month and then Bud headed back out to sea. The war ended in August, 1945 and Bud came back home in February of 1946.

Our first home and occupation was in Dunn, IN working for my father at Dunn Grain. Our first children arrived and surprised us with a set of twin boys. Larry and Terry arrived on November 1, 1946. Terry lived twelve hours and the Lord called him to His side. Larry had a slow start because he was a three pound and seven ounce baby.

In the late spring of 1947 we made another change and moved to Newton County near Kentland and started to farm. We lived and farmed there for four years. Our daughter, Kathleen Ann, arrived on January 17, 1949. Farming was progressing well and farmers seemed to be making money at this time. This is where we purchased our first purebred Shorthorn cow from the Cecil Steinmetz herd. So now we were into the cattle and also the pig business. Everyone was working hard and progressing well, but there was soon another change. We moved from Kentland to White County near Chalmers, IN. We lived there for two years. In 1953, it was decided we would buy one hundred thirty acres of farm land from my father. So, we moved back to Dunn, in Parish Grove, where we made our happy home for the next twenty-five years.

Shortly after moving back to Dunn, three small happy, healthy children entered our lives. Charles Anthony was born on July 25, 1953, Robert Wayne, on August 2, 1954 and sixteen months later another son Michael Francis arrived. This was enough to keep any family busy.

As the family grew, the interest in the Shorthorn herd grew also. Larry entered 4-H at the age of ten and started going to the County Fair. Soon Kathy was old enough to show her first calf. Father and kids worked hard but did enjoy the county and state fairs. Now was the time for another little girl to enter our lives; we proudly named her Elaine Marie. By this time Bud and his boys were on the fair circuit which lasted for almost six weeks at a time. The time was well spent, enjoying the cattle and the brushing and the grooming of them did bring home several purple ribbons. But most of all, was the making of new friends and meeting the fair families that meant so much to us.

Our eldest son Larry is a farmer and an auctioneer and is married to Margaret (Munson) Scherer. They have three sons Terry, Travis and Tyler. Our next daughter is Kathleen Ann (Scherer) Sorenson, they have three children Robert Alan, Deanna Marie, and Charles Michael; they later divorced and she married Charles Barker. Next in line, Charles Anthony, married Joan (Weisenberger) Scherer and they have four children, Stuart, Sheryl, Scotty, and Sherry Ann. They are in the farming business. Robert Wayne married Gail LeAnn Sondgeroth. Robert is now farming the home place and Gail is a teacher in the Boswell grade school. Another son, Michael, married Catherine (Ponto) Scherer, they have two boys Joshua and Nathan and are expecting another in June. Now about this time jobs are hard to find, so our youngest Elaine Marie and her husband went to Dallas, Texas to find work. This is the time when jobs seemed to be more plentiful there for the younger generation. Lots of young people from Benton County are moving away to the west. Elaine and husband David Chafin are building a house there; she is a physical therapist and Dave is in plumbing and irrigation engineering.

We have built a new home in Fowler on Fifth and East Street in 1978. We have lived there for almost eight years already. Bud is in the process of trying to retire and leaving the farming to our son, Robert. The farming is in a changing time and not too profitable right now, but with the Good Lord willing we know He will bless us and help take good care of our families.

SCHILLING-MATTHEWS

William T. Schilling (1888-1972) was the son of Peter and Eva (Meisburger) Schilling, who had come to Benton County in 1879 from Germany via. Pennsylvania. He was born at the home farm located two miles south of Dunnington, and lived there until January 12, 1911, when he married Edith Matthews (1890-1982) of Talbot, at St. Mary's Church, Dunnington. Edith was the daughter of Oliver and Emma (Heustes) Matthews. Edith and William lived in Talbot for ten years and in 1921 moved to a farm they purchased north of Talbot where they raised their family.

Wm. and Edith Schilling

Their children were: Cletus William (1911) who married Gladys Wanstrath (1914). Cletus was a building contractor and they lived in Earl Park most of their life.

Cecilia Elizabeth (1915) married Reinhold Tabert (1909-1975) and farmed north of Oxford.

Clifford Joseph (1917-1947) married Frances Wanstrath (1916-1978) and lived in Boswell. Gladys and Frances were sisters and daughters of Henry and Catherine Kult Wanstrath. Clifford was a building contractor until his death in a boating accident.

Clara May (1920) married Arthur Chaney of Ambia and lived in Benton and Tippecanoe Counties until moving to Colorado. Clara worked with children with learning disabilities at Purdue University and later at Glen Haven Achievement Center at Fort Collins, Colorado until her retirement.

Elizabeth "Betty" (1922) married Wilfred Gross (1920-1975) and after his death married Kenneth Lah. They farmed in Benton County. Camilla (1926-1928) died in childhood.

The children attended Talbot, St. Mary's and Ambia High Schools. William farmed for some time but also worked as a carpenter. In 1943 they sold the farm and moved to Fowler. They were members of Sacred Heart Catholic Church. In 1946 the Schilling Construction Company was formed with Cletus as a partner. One of their major projects was the building of the Sisters Convent at Sacred Heart Parish.

Some memories of the farm: Grain threshing when the neighborhood crew would go from farm to farm to thresh the grain. The thresher was steam engine driven, the grain was put in bins and a huge strawstack was made. The straw was used for food and bedding for the farm animals. Kids liked to get on top of the stack and slide down if they could do it without being caught. The neighbor women and children would also go to the homes on threshing day to help prepare the huge meal. The tables were laden with choice and plentiful food and there were always cakes and two or three kinds of pies to choose from.

Butchering day in winter was another neighborhood project. When the "sign was right", several neighbors would gather to slaughter the hogs. Meat was cut up, sausage was made, lard rendered. Hams, shoulders and bacon were sugar cured and smoked for later use. Some of the meat was "fried down" or canned in order to preserve it for use during the summer.

SCHILLING-MEISBURGER

Michael Schilling and Elizabeth Zintz were born and married in Bavaria, Germany. They and their children migrated to Pennsylvania in the late 1840's and settled in Schuylkill County. Later some of their children moved to Chicago and then to Benton County to settle around St. Mary's Catholic Parish at Dunnington. Michael and Elizabeth joined them prior to 1880 and both are buried in St. Mary's Cemetery.

Peter and Eva Schilling

Their children were Angelina (1831-1905) who married Frank Gross (1827-1887), Peter (1883-1909) who married Eva Meisburger (1845-1926) (Peter and Eva and their family are the subject of this history). John (1835-1906) married Magdalena E. (Steinfeldt) (1845-1926), Mary Magdalene (1837-1905) married John Metzinger (1834-1886), Catherine (1839) married Michael Boneburger, Gertrude (1841) married Michael Meisburger and Joseph (1842).

Michael and Elizabeth were the great-grandparents of John G. Bennett (1891-1957), the first Bishop of the Diocese of Lafayette in Indiana. He was made Bishop January 10, 1945.

Peter Schilling (1833-1909), son of Michael and Elizabeth (Zintz) Schilling married Eva Meisburger (1845-1927). They were both born in Germany and came to America with their respective parents, settling in Schuylkill County Pennsylvania, where they met and married. In 1867 they moved to Chicago, where they opened the Schilling Butcher Shop on Halsted Street. Later Peter's brothers, John and Joseph, joined them. They were all living in Chicago at the time of the great fire in 1871.

In 1879 they moved to a farm in Benton County, two miles south of Dunnington, which they purchased. They traveled by train to Hoopeston, Illinois and then by wagons to the farm.

Their children were: Elizabeth (1863-1942) who married Joseph Kult (1854-1926), Peter (1864-1923) who never married, Barbara (1867-1956) married John Kult (1858-1945) and lived in Iowa, Joseph (1869) died in infancy, John (1871-1932) never married, Magdalena (1873-1958) married Peter Brown (1877-1946), Robert Henry (1875-1937) married Elizabeth Oberholser (1878-1963), Mary (1877-1949) married Joseph Quarlieter and lived in Minnesota, Catherine (1880-1962) married John Metzinger and lived in Missouri, Angeline "Anna" (1882-1961) married John Scott, Gertrude (1884-1896) died in childhood, George and Joseph, twins, (1886-1896) died in childhood, and William (1888-1972) married Edith Matthews (1890-1982).

During a typhoid fever epidemic in 1896, George, one of the twins, died and his father, Peter, went to Fowler in a box wagon to get a casket. Upon his return Joseph, the other twin, and his sister, Gertrude, had also died. William, who was also ill with typhoid at the time, recovered.

SCHILLING-WANSTRATH

Cletus William Schilling and Mary Gladys Wanstrath were married January 19, 1938, at St. Mary's Church, Dunnington. Cletus, with his father (William Theodore) and brother (Clifford) formed the Schilling Construction Company and worked in Southern Benton County as building contractors. In 1942, due to World War II, Cletus was employed under Civil Service by Wright Patterson Air Force Base at Dayton, Ohio, and remained there until the end of the war.

Cletus and Gladys Schilling

In the fall of 1945, he returned to Benton County and moved to Earl Park, where he and Gladys still reside. They are members of the St. John the Baptist Catholic Church.

In the spring of 1946, the Schilling Construction was reformed with Cletus and his father as partners. William retired from the partnership in 1957. One major building project was the Catholic Sisters' Home for the Sacred Heart Parish in Fowler.

Cletus served on the Earl Park Town Board fourteen years, the last seven as president.

Cletus and Gladys Schilling are the parents of four daughters: Jean (Schilling) Roberts Rattay; Edith Ann (Schilling) Rhoads; Kay (Schilling) Jones; and Jill (Schilling) Brock, and one son, William C. Schilling.

Allen Lee (1960-1962) died of congenital heart failure. Kenneth and Jean were divorced in 1984 and she is now married to Ulrich Rattay who is employed at Inland Steel in East Chicago. They make their home in Schererville.

Dear Joyce,

Finally...after months, I am answering your Feb letter. Thanks for the copies of everything.

I am sending some important items I have recently copied from the records of St. Joseph's Church in Sankt Ingbert, Germany. I am only sorry I cannot completely read the Latin used in the various records. Our son, Dick, who lives in Minneapolis (and wife, Judy) will be here mid-August for a couple of days. They both teach and spend their summers in New Mexico. Stop here on the way to NM in June and again on return in August. He has had several years of Latin in high school and college. I will try, if time allows, to have him decipher the complete documents. Maybe he can at least come up with the days of marriage, baptism and death. I hope!

As you can see by the records, Elizabeth (maybe Joanna Elizabeth) who married Michael Schilling definitely had the surname Zentz/Zens/Zenz. When Michael and Elizabeth were married in Jan 1830 in Sankt Ingbert, she was called Elizabeth Zenz, dau of Francis Zenz and Catherine Waber. Michael is shown as the son of Theobald Schilling and Margaret Leonard/Leonhard. Michael, at his baptism in 1804 at St. Ingbert was also, called the son of Theobald Schilling and Margaret Leonard. The Benton Co. History (1987) states Elizabeth's name was Zintz (very close). Now it seems certain that when Peter (son of Michael and Elizabeth) died in 1909, the wrong information was given for his death certificate. Peter (Jr) gave the information concerning his father and would have known his grandparents and I am surprised that he made such a mistake. His grandmother Elizabeth died when he was 23 and the only thing I can guess is that he could have seen it written in the German and thought it was Senor. The LDS records for Zentz also suggest a spelling check for the name SENSS. Could the last two letters, when written in the German have seemed to end in o and r?

Peter and Eva Schilling's last child William, born in 1888, was baptised at St. Mary's Church, Benton Co. as "William Theobald Schilling". The Benton Co. History calls him William Theodore...but, I suspect his middle name was Theobald for his greatgrandfather Schilling.

I have looked through most of the four rolls of microfilm for St. Joseph's Church, Sankt Ingbert and have not found anything to indicate the death or marriage of Theobald Schilling and Margaret Leonard so they married somewhere else in Germany. I did not find their death records at St. Joseph's.

Some progress has been made. We are back another generation on both the male and female lines of the Schilling/Zentz family.

Anxious to hear from you and will send the actual dates if son has time to translate when here.

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Joyce,

Thanks so much for the family group sheets and material concerning the Schilling and related families. They certainly added much information to the research I have done in the past.

I am enclosing my group work sheets for the Schilling and related families. As you can see, much work still needs to be done on most of them.

Bartlesville is fortunate to have an LDS Family History Center (in fact, I am one of the volunteers). In looking for information at the History Center Library, I noticed that they had microfilmed the church records for St. Mary's Church in Dunnington, Benton Co., IN. The records are from 1888 until 1988, with a few earlier. They are the actual baptism, marriage and death records. Most of my dates on the group sheets come from this film. I am totally amazed when reading it to see all of the names I have heard about from my Dad who was born in Indiana.

I noticed on your sheet concerning the Joseph Quarlieter and Mary Margaret Schilling family that some of the children were not born in Benton County, where I thought they were born. Also, the baptismal records for St. Mary's Church definitely show they were baptised at that church. Did they bring the children home from Illinois to be baptised?

Several years ago, I noticed an advertisement for the enclosed history of Ambia. I ordered copies for our family. My sister died in 1982, so I ended up with two copies. If you already have the book, please return it to me and I will pass it on to another cousin. It does not give a great deal of information, but does list several of our families.

I have, this past week, ordered the 1850 and 1860 census film for Schuylkill Co. PA. When I get those census records for the family, I will sent them to you. I think some of the Schilling marriages may have taken place at St. Bartholomew Church in Schuylkill Co. (see the biography of Joseph Metzinger in the Benton Co. History). The biography says John Meetzinger and Magdalena Schilling were married at Patterson, PA. St. Bartholomew Church is at Brockton, PA, but notice on the enclosed map that there is a Patterson nearby. I think I will write to the church at Brockton and ask if they have marriages for the Schilling children.

Hope the material helps and look forward to the rest of the Schilling documents you are in the process of copying.

I might note that I can order the Catholic Church and civil records for Sankt Ingbert, Bav/Ger from the LDS Church. I have not done this as yet, but will in the future. I have found a German translator here in Bartlesville, so it will make it easier. They will probably be in Latin and German.

Will close for now, and I am

Sincerely,

Mary

HISTORY: Formed from parts of Berks and Northampton counties, named from the Dutch which means "Hidden Stream." Orwigsburg became first county seat, but in 1851 seat of justice went to Pottsville. Count Zinzendorf, Moravian missionary, called area "The Wilderness of St. Anthony." Pioneers were threatened continually by the Indians between 1744 and 1778. Forts were built 15 miles apart along the Blue Mountains. Earliest settlements were Schuylkill Haven, Friedensburg, Pine Grove (known as Barrstown) and McKeansburg. One hundred men from area fought at Brandywine and Germantown. Necho Allen, on a trip in 1790, found anthracite "rocks" burned with an intense heat.

Dear Jean, S/B Mary
MN

Sorry that it has been so long since I last wrote you. You know how it is with family and work. Plus I'm also a Cub Scout leader for my oldest. Thats like have another job. But its lot of fun.

I sure enjoy going over your last letter to me, there was a lot of info in it. Thanks a lot for it. There is two things about the Foglesongs is that they had a lot of children and they use the same few names over and over (charles, mary, henry and etc..). It can sure get to a person when you have father, son, and grandson all with the same name like Charles and more then one son will name their son after grandpa.

Here is all the family groups sheets i thougth you would want. Have fun with them. I'm going through all my documents I have on the Schilling and coping it for you.

Here is also a copy of our Pedigree chart. The following family group sheets are enclosed:

David & Joyce Smithers

Dear Joyce,

Just received the translations from our son, Dick, concerning the records of St. Joseph Church, Sankt Ingbert, Germany. His good work now gives us birth dates for all of the children of Michael Schilling and Elizabeth Zentz.

To correct my last letter, I said I had not found a death for Theobald Schilling, father of Michael...I reread the film and did find that Theobald died at St. Ingbert. As best as my translation goes, it seems to read that he died on 15 Dec 1813 (decima quinta Decembris obit) and was buried 16 Dec 1813 (decima sexta Decembris). He must have died quite young, probably in his 30s. Other than Michael, born 23 Aug 1804, I have only one other child proven and that is a daughter, Magdalena, who died 13 Feb 1813 and is buried in the cemetery at St. Ingbert.

I have ordered the microfilm of the records of St. Michael's Church in Chicago. My grandmother, Catherine Ann Schilling Metzinger (dau of Peter and Eva) was baptised at St. Michael's in 1880. Her baptismal certificate shows her birthdate. If their other children (Joseph, John, Magdalena, Robert and Mary Marg) were baptised at the same church, it should show their exact birthdate.

The records we really need are from the church in Schuylkill Co. PA. This is probably where all of the children of Michael and Elizabeth were married. They have not been microfilmed and I doubt that the church pastor would be willing to look up all of the marriages I would like to receive. I have tried to call him in PA and he has an answering machine, which indicates the parish has no secretary. He is probably too busy to "do genealogy"...

Enclosing an updated family group sheet with the new dates and a copy of the translations (and explainations) done by son, Dick, of Minneapolis, MN. He teaches at the U of Minn and is working on his masters degree. His wife, Judy, teaches at the Minn School of Art and Design.

Would like your comments on the latest material...

Sincerely,

Mary

Dear Mary;

Thanks again for the info and the book on Ambia indiana. I don't have this book and thank you for it.

Most of my info on the Schilling came from Eva (Quarlieter) Russell. We wrote a lot of letters back and forth. She died a few year back and I will miss her a lot. my mother-in-law Agnes is the last one of her line. By the way Agnes has a picture of Bishop John Bennett and a few other Schillings.

I'm still going threw all my paper. I have a small library and I'm a little disorganized right now. I'm trying to get all my info on our computer. That is a lot of work. I don't get must time to work on this as i would like to.

Where did you get the maiden name of Elizabeth Zintz from? I have Sener. I'm going threw my things to check this out.

The Quarlieter lived in Ambia, Indiana and for some reason they had some of their kids in Illinois. For 62 years my mother-in-law thought she was born in Indiana. I helped her locate her birth record and that is when she found out she was born in Illinois. They alwayed lived in Indiana until they moved to Minnisota by Model T Car. Agnes remeber this.

i found some copies of marriage, birth and death records I copied from the LDS LIBRARY IN SAlt Lake City, utah in 1980. My husband didn't see me for a week.

Also the death Certificate of Peter & Eva Schilling and the marriage licence on Joseph & mary Quarlieter and Joseph & Catherine Quarlieter.

have fun with this and i will get more together for you. I'll try not to take a year to send you information.

Sincerely,

Joyce Smithers

In the Nov-Dec, 1982 issue of the Genealogical Helper-Roots Cellar, was a request by the following researcher:

JOYCE I. SMITHERS
304 GRANDVIEW CT.
IOWA CITY, IA 52240

Ms. Smithers was researching, Eva A. Schilling, d. 1927, Benton Co., Indiana. Eva A. Schilling (wife of Peter) is my great-grandmother. I would very much like to locate Ms. Smithers, but find there is no telephone listing for a Smithers at the above address.

I am enclosing a check in the amount of $5.00 in hopes that a member of your society will copy the page from your local telephone book and city directory listing the Smithers names.

If no member is available to fill my request, I am enclosing an SASE for names of researchers in your city.

Thank you very much for your help.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Since the researcher about whom you inquired is still a member of our society, I am returning your check; for I only had to look at our current membership list in order to get her address.

Joyce Smithers' address is: Box 357, Wellman, Iowa 52356, and I'm sure that she will be happy to hear from you.

Very truly yours,

Rev. John Bouvier
% St. Mary's Church-Dunnington
RR 1
Ambia, Indiana 47917

Dear Father Bouvier,

I appreciate your kindness in providing death dates from St. Mary's Church records for my great-grandparents, Peter and Eva Schilling, and Henry and Mary Metzinger.

I am sure the records must contain many baptisms, marriages and deaths for my families who moved to Benton County over 100 years ago. Maybe someday I can visit and abstract those records for my family research.

Thought you might be interested in the following address I obtained after we talked:

Rev. Lee O'Neil
% St. Lawrence Church
370 South Section
Fairhope, Alabama 36512

Father Jewitt was out when I called so was unable to learn if Father O'Neil is assigned to St. Lawrence or just receives his mail at this address. He is a good man and I hope his health is much improved.

I am enclosing my stamped, self-addressed envelope in hopes you can locate the address for Janet Cummings of Wichita, who inquired about Peter and Eva Schilling.

Thank you for the information and best wishes during this season of love and peace.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Dear Ms. Smithers:

I have , only recently, noticed your entry in the Nov-Dec, 1982 issue of the Genealogical Helper/Roots Cellar concerning EVA A. SCHILLING, DIED, MAY 1927 - BENTON COUNTY, INDIANA.

Eva Schilling, wife of Peter, is my great-grandmother. I know very little about the Schilling family, but am enclosing what I do know about them. I have had little success in researching this family. There are "cousins" that come to Missouri to visit on occasion from Indiana, but I have never met them and my Missouri aunts will not ask my questions about the Schilling family. They are not really interested in genealogy and have been gone from the Indiana area since 1905 and know few of the cousins.

I missed your entry in 1982 concerning Eva Schilling. My mother was seriously ill during 1982 and died in February, 1983. I probably did not read that issue of the Helper and only in February, went back over my old issues. I was sad when I tried to contact you in Iowa City, only to find you no longer lived there. I wrote to the Iowa City Genealogy Society to hire a researcher to look for you and they kindly sent your address (see enclosed copy of my letter to them).

Hope you are still doing research on the Schilling family and would like to hear from you. I am enclosing my SASE for your convenience to reply and copies of a little information.

Thank you.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley

Iowa City, IA 52244

In the Nov-Dec, 1982 issue of the Genealogical Helper-Roots Cellar, was a request by the following researcher:

JOYCE I. SMITHERS
304 GRANDVIEW CT.
IOWA CITY, IA 52240

Ms. Smithers was researching, Eva A. Schilling, d. 1927, Benton Co., Indiana. Eva A. Schilling (wife of Peter) is my great-grandmother. I would very much like to locate Ms. Smithers, but find there is no telephone listing for a Smithers at the above address.

I am enclosing a check in the amount of $5.00 in hopes that a member of your society will copy the page from your local telephone book and city directory listing the Smithers names.

If no member is available to fill my request, I am enclosing an SASE for names of researchers in your city.

Thank you very much for your help.

Sincerely,

Mary Nunneley
